Reflection: The power of the resurrection

Brothers, because of the power of Christ’s resurrection, we are capable of far more than we can imagine.

“He is risen! He is risen indeed!”

When we say these words, we are both affirming a historical fact and proclaiming a great mystery. It is a fact that at a particular time and in a particular place, Jesus was unjustly condemned, brutally put to death, anointed and buried, and three days later rose from the dead. This we profess every Sunday. It happened. And everything that we believe, not just about our religion but about the entire universe, stems from it. As St. Paul says, “If Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith” (1 Cor. 15:14).

But the death and resurrection of Jesus is also a great mystery. The resurrection changed the entire world and changed it forever. READ MORE

Ideas for building your domestic church

COVID-19 has forced families to stay at home, providing an opportunity for men to lead their families in both new devotions and age-old traditions.

As parishes across the world temporarily close, Knights must step into the breach and embrace their duties to lead their own domestic churches: their families. Here are some activities Knights can introduce for spiritual nourishment at home. READ MORE

During COVID-19, pregnancy centers face a shortage of supplies, including life-saving ultrasound machines. K of C are stepping up to help.

Knights of Columbus Bishop A. Gallegos Council 6197 in Folsom, Calif., planned to hold a fundraiser for Sierra Pregnancy + Health – a local pregnancy resource center. However, the state deemed their fundraiser as non-essential work in the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic. It got canceled.

The ultimate irony? The Planned Parenthood facility just around the corner from the center is still operational. Because of this, Ray Brosterhous, a Knight of Columbus from Council 6197, remained determined to “make a difference in helping women to choose life.” READ MORE

Next Webinar April 23

This week’s webinar will not take place due to the online exemplification taking place that day. Our next webinar will be Thursday, April 23 at 8 p.m. Register for the live webinar or watch archived presentations here.

Online exemplification this Thursday

The Supreme Council will be conducting the first ever online Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity on Thursday, April 16 at 8 p.m. Conducting this event online allows men to join the Knights and serve with us during the time of the coronavirus, while observing safe distance and stay-at-home orders.

To participate, candidates must be invited to register by a grand knight or financial secretary. Our system limits us to a maximum of 10,000 candidates and observers. Anyone unable to participate due to this limit will be invited to an online ceremony at a future date and time. Stay tuned for more information.

Helping your kids study at home?

‘You can protect those around you by wearing a mask, and they will protect you.’

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention are currently recommending that everyone who goes out in public wear a face mask to slow the spread of COVID-19.

ABC NEWS provides a breakdown of why it’s important to wear a mask, but even more importantly, it provides instructions on whether kids should cover their faces and how to create an effective one using nothing more than elastic bands (or hair ties) and whatever cloth you have available. That’s right – zero sewing. WATCH
