News for Knights of Columbus

Introducing a special screening of Mother Teresa: No Greater Love at the Sheen Center for Thought and Culture in New York City, Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly noted, "Mother Teresa teaches us that Calcutta is everywhere in the sense that we all have people in our lives who are lonely, who are desperate, who need others."

Knights and Mother Teresa in NYC

On Sept. 15, the Sheen Center for Thought and Culture in New York City hosted a special screening of a new documentary about St. Teresa of Calcutta produced by the Knights of Columbus. In attendance were Cardinal Timothy Dolan, archbishop of New York, Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly and members of the Missionaries of Charity. WATCH HERE

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love will be released in more than 900 theaters across the United States Oct. 3 and 4. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit motherteresamovie.com.

Knights of Columbus Supports Disabled Ukrainian Refugees in Poland

Klika is an association of volunteers in Kraków, Poland, that aids people with physical and intellectual disabilities through classes and workshops. After the war in Ukraine broke out, Klika partnered with the Knights of Columbus to aid refugees who needed help with transportation and accessing life-saving resources. "This is what it means to be pro-life, to take care of every person," said Szymon Czyszczek, the Order's director for international growth in Europe. "As Knights of Columbus, we are men who want to defend life at every stage." WATCH HERE

Everyday Hero: Daniel Magallanes

When Daniel Magallanes first became a firefighter, his priorities changed, and he became distant from his faith. His entire world was turned upside down, though, when his wife was diagnosed with a brain tumor that required surgery. This culminated in a providential meeting with a priest that led to his return to the faith. Today, as a Knight of Columbus, Daniel is proud to serve the Church and the community and is grateful for the support of his brother Knights in his life. His story is featured in Everyday Heroes: Season 3. WATCH HERE | READ MORE
